Electronic payslips with regipay

- legally compliant with the Data Protection Act and labour laws
- simple electronic processes that allow for immediate cost and time savings
- works with existing solutions for wage and salary administration
- can be sent and received to/from any e-mail address
- save any payslip as a PDF for processing
- Desktop application makes it very easy and fast to send payslips
- Only £0.25 per e-payslip, compared to traditional labour, stationary and postage costs
- for further information, contact us: contact@satswana.com

In most companies payslips are still printed and handled as costly paper versions. The issuance of these documents is a time and paper consuming process. regipay makes this process redundant by sending these statements via e-mail to the private e-mail address of the employee. This implies substantial savings in cost and time.
